

It is burdensome needing two video devices to make VRS call through its provider. I am writing to support VRS services and equipment to be compatible or "interoperable" with one another to make VRS calls through all providers.